Awana Missionary Scholarship

Trinity values the ministry of those serving with Awana and seeks to make an undergraduate education at Trinity more affordable for these families. The Awana Missionary Scholarship provides eligible students with 50% off of tuition in total gift aid from Trinity, including any academic, athletic, or music scholarships for which a student may be eligible. To qualify for the Awana Missionary Scholarship, a full-time student must be the son or daughter of an Awana Missionary serving full-time with this ministry.
